Title:

Presentation by the General Services Director about updates in regards to the Recycling Pilot Projects

Background:
On December 5, 2017, the Broken Arrow Municipal Authority (BAMA) approved the Citizens Recycling Committee recommendation to conduct two concurrent recycling pilot programs encompassing approximately 500 customers each. One pilot project area will receive a recycling cart, while the other will have both refuse and recycling carts. The pilot projects are scheduled to begin in January 24, 2019.

Lee Zirk, General Services Director will provide an update to the Authority on the pilot project preparations.
