

4. Food and Beverage Service

Food and Beverage Service businesses serve prepared food or beverages for consumption on or off the premises. Accessory uses may include food preparation areas, offices, and parking. Specific use types include, but are not limited to:

a. Bar/Nightclub

A structure or part of a structure used primarily for the sale or dispensing of alcoholic beverages or liquor by the drink. Dancing and musical entertainment are permitted.

b. Catering Service

An establishment that prepares food for service at a remote site.

c. Fruit and Vegetable Market

A building, structure, or tract of land which may include open air stands that is used for the primary purpose of retail sales of fresh fruits, vegetables, flowers, herbs, or plants. This definition may also include the accessory sales of other unprocessed foodstuffs, home processed food products, baked goods, and homemade handicrafts.

d. Restaurant, Drive-In

A restaurant where customers purchase and consume prepared food on the premises in their automobiles.

e. Restaurant (without Drive-Through)

An area or structure in which the principal use is the preparation and sale of food and beverages. Operations may or may not include outdoor seating areas or outdoor food service, but the operation does not include a drive-through or drive-in facility.

f. Restaurant (with Drive-Through)

An eating/drinking establishment in which the principal business is the sale of foods or beverages to the customer in a ready-to-consume state and in which the design or method of operation of all or any portion of the business allows food or beverages to be served directly to the customer in a motor vehicle without the need for the customer to exit the motor vehicle.

g. Micro Food and Beverage Production

An establishment that produces, bottles, and/or distributes small quantities of food or beverages that are not part of a restaurant type use. Typical examples include but are not limited to microbreweries, nanobreweries, brewpubs, wine blending, and limited food production.

3. Schedule C

Uses that reference "Schedule C" in Table 5.4.1 have widely varying parking and loading demand characteristics, making it impossible to specify a single off-street parking or loading standard. Upon receiving a development application for a use subject to Schedule C standards, the Director shall apply the off-street parking and loading standard specified for the listed use that is deemed most similar to the proposed use or establish minimum off-street parking requirements on the basis of a parking and loading study prepared by the applicant. Such a study shall include estimates of parking demand based on recommendations of the Institute of Transportation Engineers (ITE), or other acceptable estimates as approved by the Director, and should include other reliable data collected from uses or combinations of uses that are the same as or comparable with the proposed use. Comparability will be determined by density, scale, bulk, area, type of activity, and location. The study shall document the source of data used to develop the recommendations.

4. Maximum Number of Spaces Permitted

a. General Maximum Requirement

Any use categorized as a "commercial" or "industrial" use in Chapter 3, Use Regulations, may provide no more than one hundred twenty-five percent (125%) of the minimum number of off-street vehicle parking spaces established in Table 5.4.1 Off-Street Parking Schedule A, unless an exception is approved under Subsection (b) below.

b. Exceptions

- i. If application of the maximum parking standard would result in fewer than six (6) parking spaces, the development shall be allowed six (6) parking spaces.
- ii. Exceptions to the maximum parking requirement may be allowed in situations that meet all of the following criteria:
