Purpose of Event attendance: City of Broken Arrow Purple Heart Ceremony

City Councilors have been invited to attend the City's Purple Heart Ceremony that will host dignitaries from the State Capital and Commanders of several Military Orders.

On August 8th, The City of Broken Arrow will be proclaiming itself to be a Purple Heart City in a ceremony held at Veteran's Park. By becoming a Purple Heart City, our community is proclaiming support and appreciation for our wounded and fallen Veteran's and their families, as well as our country's active and retired military. During the ceremony, the city's Purple Heart sign will be unveiled.
