Mr. Birmingham joined the Firm in 1998 and is a partner in the New York local government and school district finance practice group. Prior to joining the Firm, Mr. Birmingham was the Deputy County Executive of Putnam County, New York, as well as Chairman of the Putnam County Industrial Development Agency. On December 31, 2012, Mr. Birmingham completed his final term as a Putnam County Legislator, having first been elected in 2003.

Mr. Birmingham has extensive experience in connection with various property tax-supported bond and note issues involving counties, cities, towns, villages, school districts and fire districts throughout New York State. He has also served as Underwriter's Counsel on several bond and note offerings.

Mr. Birmingham is a member of the New York State Association of School Business Officials, the Nassau County Association of School Business Officials, the Suffolk County Association of School Business Officials, New York State Bar Association (Municipal Law Section), the New York State Government Finance Officers' Association, the New York State Association of Counties and the New York State Association of School Attorneys. In addition, Mr. Birmingham is an adjunct professor at Pace University where he teaches a course on school business law. He also periodically addresses conventions and meetings of various public finance associations and organizations, and lectures classes of aspiring school administrators at various universities.

Mr. Birmingham graduated from The Catholic University of America in 1990, receiving a B.A. in History and The Columbus School of Law at the Catholic University of America in 1995.
